10:00 AM SERVICE: “Centering” Rev. David M. Kohlmeier. This service will draw from our UU Common Read: “Centering.” We will seek to listen and learn about what it means to be Unitarian Universalist by expanding our vision to center the perspectives of UU leaders who are also people of color. How does our common faith look different when we center a different point of view?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Social Justice and Community Service.

COFFEE HOUR: Provided by the “3rd Sunday” group (members & friends whose names begin with L-R).

SERMON DISCUSSION: 11:15 AM in the East Wing. Discuss the sermon and its relevance to our lives.

INQUIRER’S SERIES: 11:15 AM in the Library. Topic: “Pastoral Care and Small Groups.”

EVENTS THIS WEEK

INQUIRER’S SERIES CONTINUES, Sunday, February 18, at 11:15 AM in the Library. This week’s Inquirer’s Series will continue with a session on “Pastoral Care and Small Groups.” We will meet newcomers and share how we minister to each other in smaller settings than our Sunday service.

NEW PHOTO DIRECTORY COMING SOON! Beginning this Sunday, there will be a sign-up board on the big table in the Sanctuary where you can make an appointment to have your photo taken. All photos will be taken in March there are Saturday and Sunday dates available (as well as Mondays). If there any photographers out there who would like to help, please contact Gail Donkin at gdonkin@mac.com. Details will be emailed/mailed out this week.

UU COMMON READ SESSION 2, Sunday, February 18, at 2:30 PM in the Sanctuary. The second session of the UU Common Read book, Centering: Navigating Race, Authenticity, and Power in Ministry, will focus on Leadership and Ministry, discussing two readings: Call and Response, by Rev. Lauren Smith, with response by Rev. Dr. Susan Newman Moore; and Representing, by Rev. Manish Mishra-Marzetti, with response by Rev. Rosemary Bray McNatt.

BROWN BAG BOOK BUNCH, Wednesday, February 21, at noon. This lunchtime book group meets in a member’s home once a month; one person talks about a book she has read which leads to a discussion. Bring your own lunch; the hostess provides beverage and dessert. This month’s meeting will take place at Cynthia Repplier’s home, 15 Waters Edge Road, East Falmouth. Please call Cynthia at 508-540-8168 if you can come.

FAITH FACTS FOR THE WEEK: Did you know that this year we have at least one child in every grade beginning with four year olds in the nursery and ending with high school students graduating this June? The children of our faith community are being supported on their journey of faith formation and we are so proud of them!

UPCOMING EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY SERVICE, February 25, at 10:00 AM: “Reclaiming My Time” Rev. Kimberley Debus.

Over the past year, we have seen women and more than a few men say “enough” to sexism, sexual violence, and a misogynistic culture that devalues half the population. What does it mean to not only have, but promote a new vision of a world that no longer needs #metoo?

Our guest minister will be Rev. Kimberley Debus, who works as a community minister in the Capital Region of New York State. In addition, she is an adjunct consultant with the Central East Region, has previously served the First Universalist Church of Southold on Long Island and One Island Family UU Congregation in Key West Florida, and is currently serving our congregation on Nantucket as sabbatical minister.

INQUIRER'S SERIES CONTINUES, Sunday, February 25, at 11:15 AM. The next session in the Inquirer's Series will take place on February 25 with the topic, "Worship and the Liturgical Year." Rev. David Kohlmeier will answer questions and share the Order of Service, and discuss plans for the year ahead.

UU COMMON READ SESSION 3, Sunday, February 25, 2:30 PM in the Sanctuary. The third session of the UU Common Read book, Centering: Navigating Race, Authenticity, and Power in Ministry, will focus on Ministering to People of Color, The Religious Educator of Color, co-written by Rev. Natalie Maxwell Fenimore and Aisha Hauser, MSW, with response by Rev. Sofia Betancourt.

Please join us for an exploration of this powerful book about how racial identity is made both visible and invisible in a culturally white faith community. If you need to borrow a copy of the book, please email Rev. David at minister@uuffm.org.

SERVICE ASSOCIATES NEEDED. Interested in helping out with Sunday services? Rev. David is looking for Service Associates--individuals willing to assist our minister or guest speakers with Sunday services. Please email minister@uuffm.org if you are interested or would like to learn more.

MARGARET ANN MCKEE (MICKEY) BARNES: All are welcome to join in a celebration of life for Mickey Barnes, long-time UUFF member, on Sunday, March 4, 2018 at 1:00 PM at The Melrose, 601 Route 28, Harwichport. For more information, contact Rebecca Barnes at 401-533-1888.

Sandwich Road Menu brings you the latest news and highlights of upcoming events for the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Falmouth, Massachusetts. It is emailed each Friday and folded into the Order of Service on Sunday. Send submissions for all UUFF publications, including the Sandwich Road Menu, to announce@uuffm.org. The deadline for submissions to the Sandwich Road Menu is noon on Wednesday.
