10:00 AM SERVICE: “Black Humanism Matters” October 22, at 10:00 AM. A key part of our common heritage as a community is Humanism, a philosophy which (according to the American Humanist Association) “is a progressive philosophy of life that, without theism and other supernatural beliefs, affirms our ability and responsibility to lead ethical lives of personal fulfillment that aspire to the greater good of humanity.” In this service we’ll seek to center the voices of Black Humanists, and the ways they are challenging Humanism, and all of us, to embrace a larger and deeper human-centered vision. This service is being held in solidarity with hundreds of UU communities who are devoting services on this day to the dismantling of white supremacy in ourselves, our institutions, and our larger world.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Classes this week.

SERMON DISCUSSION: 11:15 AM, in the East Wing. Discuss the sermon and its relevance to our lives.

EVENTS THIS WEEK

YOUTH GROUP PUMPKIN SALE: October 22, after the service. The Youth Group will be selling pumpkins again this year after church. Proceeds will go to the Youth Group Service Trip Fund.

INQUIRER’S SERIES CONTINUES: October 22 at 11:30 AM - “Worship and the Liturgical Year.”

YOUTH CHOIR: October 22, after the service in the Choir Room. All ages are welcome!

WORLD UNITY CHOIR’S “INTRODUCTORY” SING-IN: Monday, October 23, 7-8 PM at UUFF in honor of United Nations Day. No prior singing experience is necessary. The songs are easy and mostly sung in unison. Rehearse only once a month on Mondays, Nov. 13, Dec. 11, Jan. 8 at 7 PM & Sat., Jan. 13th at 1:30 PM prior to the 3 PM concert! We will perform The World Unity songs during Martin Luther King, Jr.’s birthday weekend at the grand “sing-in” concert Sat. Jan. 13, at 3 PM and at the UUFF service Sun. Jan. 14, at 10 AM. This event is being directed by singer/songwriter Dawna Hammers and sponsored by the UUFF’s Music Committee.

ADULT EDUCATION: October 25, at 7:00 PM - Income Inequality. World-class speaker Chuck Collins will talk to us about an overriding issue—income inequality. Find answers to: What is income inequality? How big is it and how do we know? Why should we care? What can we do about it?

MEN’S BREAKFAST: Every Thursday, 8:00 AM. Fellowship, coffee, bagels and good conversation. All male members and friends of the UUFF are welcome. Information: Bob Sabin, 508-563-7685.

UPCOMING EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY SERVICE: “Semper Reformanda!” October 29, at 10:00 AM. This Sunday countless churches around the globe are celebrating the 500th anniversary of the start of the Protestant Reformation. Our own UU tradition emerged out of two distinct Protestant traditions, so this is our anniversary as well. We’ll explore how some of the most contentious ideas of the Reformation continue to shape what it means to be a UU today.

YOUTH GROUP BOOK SALE: Sunday, October 29, after the service. Half of the proceeds will be donated to the Youth Group Service Trip Fund, while the other half and all leftover books, will be donated to The Cape Cod Literacy Council to combat illiteracy.

RACHAEL CARSON DINNER: November 4, 6:00 PM at the Meetinghouse. Come one, come all to this annual event. We share food and fellowship and raise money for the three food pantries--Falmouth, Sandwich and Bourne. There will be live music. The cost is $10 for adults, $5 for children under 12 and $20 for a family. Sign up on the signup board in the foyer to bring your favorite dish. Contact Julia Withers with any questions: jmwithers6@gmail.com.

IT'S ALTERNATIVE GIFT MARKET TIME ONCE AGAIN! This year the AGM takes place on Saturday and Sunday, November 11 and 12 at the St. Barnabas Episcopal Church parish hall with seven sponsoring communities of faith. And once again, UUFF, as a founding congregation, is asking our members to volunteer for shifts at various booths. Sign up sheets for volunteers are posted in the UU foyer. Please consider giving a time shift of two hours or even more! If you have never attended any of the previous ten AGMs, come see what you have been missing! In a time of so much need across the nation and the globe, the call to help others this holiday season is especially powerful.

SEEKING HOSTS FOR A PLACE AT OUR TABLE FUNDRAISER. We are looking for hosts to hold a dinner or other event to be sold at silent auction. We hope to have a good variety of events over the winter--this is a good time to make your favorites soups, stews or other cold-weather dishes. Please contact Ellen Todd for sign-up forms or more information. You can email her at ellen@jackson-todd.com, or look for her in church on Sunday October 22, November 5 and November 12. The auction dates are December 3 and 10.

FELLOWSHIP GROUPS HAVE ADDITIONAL OPENINGS. Two of our Fellowship Groups have openings for additional members. These groups are especially helpful to new members in getting to know a small group of people in a comfortable atmosphere of sharing on a variety of topics. Second and forth Tuesdays, 7 PM, call Chris Wheeler, 508-392-9608; first and third Tuesdays, 1:30 PM, call Pat Howitt, 508-681-0144.
