Sunday, November 5, 2017

10:00 AM SERVICE: “What Is Remembered Lives” November 5, at 10:00 AM. Drawing from the ancient Celtic festival of Samhain (pronounced “Sow-en”), we will remember our loved ones who have died. You are invited to bring a picture of someone you want to remember, or an object that reminds you of them, as we build a common altar of remembrance. There will also be an opportunity to name aloud our beloved dead, and share a bit of what about them we are most grateful for.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Class this week.

SERMON DISCUSSION: 11:15 AM, in the East Wing. Discuss the sermon and its relevance to our lives.

UPCOMING EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY SERVICE: “Gratitude for the Stranger” November 12, at 10:00 AM. Violence against immigrants, people of color, Muslims, transgender persons, Jewish persons, and many more is disturbingly on the rise in our nation. Is our Fellowship a place where the stranger is welcome, or one more place where strangers and visitors are feared or looked at with suspicion? How can we better cultivate a spirit of gratitude and hospitality for all who visit or might wish to join our Fellowship? That’s what this service will explore. We will also be inducting new lay ministers during this service.

INQUIRER’S SERIES CONTINUES: November 12, at 11:15 AM – Membership 101 and Congregation Life. This is a drop-in program offered seasonally on Sunday mornings for newcomers, members and guests to learn more about our Fellowship and Unitarian Universalism.

PUERTO RICO DONATION: November 12: A number of people have asked where it would be best to send donations to help Puerto Rico. Steve Treistman, who has friends and colleagues in Puerto Rico, has done a lot of research and believes that the San Juan Rotary club is a good vehicle for donations. Giving to this organization would allow us to receive personal input on where our donations are going and their impact, and Steve trusts Gerardo Cumpeano of the San Juan Rotary to do the right thing at the local level. The SJ Rotary is quite active, including hosting an annual Thanksgiving meal for kids from Boys and Girls Clubs around the Island. It is on schedule for this coming Thanksgiving, so that the kids who can get there are assured of a hot meal. We will be using a bank transfer mechanism. Checks should be made out to UUFF with "Puerto Rico" in the memo line.

CALLING ALL UUFF ADULTS AND CHILDREN TO JOIN THE WORLD UNITY CHOIR: Next rehearsal November 13. An international singing group led by Dawna Hammers, teacher, performer and recording artist. Together we will learn Dawna's beautiful original songs that express our global consciousness, and perform them for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Day events in January. No group singing experience is necessary! Rehearsals are Mondays Nov. 13, Dec. 11, and Jan. 8, from 7-8 PM. We encourage attending all rehearsals, but at least one rehearsal will be necessary to perform with the grand sing-in which will be held on Sat. Jan. 13 at 3 PM, and at the 10 AM Sunday service on Jan. 14. All rehearsals and events will be held at the UUF--all adults and children are welcome!! For further information please talk to Fred Johnson or a member of the UUFF Music Committee.

AUTHOR SPOTLIGHT: November 15, at 7:00 PM. Robert M. Reece, M.D. is a retired professor of pediatrics at Tufts University School of Medicine and author of many professional articles. He is a member of the UUFF and an active member of the choir. Since retiring, Bob has written two novels focused around medical issues. He will talk about his most recent novel titled "Double Blind Double Cross" which focuses on a mystery around PTSD.

JANE NAM MEMORIAL SERVICE: November 18, at 10:00 AM at UUFF. All are welcome to join in celebrating the life of Jane Nam. Raised in Bourne where she lived much of her life, she was a town meeting member and made a quiet but meaningful impact on improving life on the Cape.

SEEKING HOSTS FOR A PLACE AT OUR TABLE FUNDRAISER. We are looking for hosts to hold a dinner or other event to be sold at silent auction. We hope to have a good variety of events over the winter--this is a good time to make your favorites soups, stews or other cold-weather dishes. Please contact Ellen Todd for sign-up forms or more information. You can email her at ellen@jackson-todd.com, or look for her in church on Sunday November 5 and November 12. The auction dates are December 3 and 10.

ANNUAL WINTER COAT DRIVE FOR OUR LESS FORTUNATE NEIGHBORS. Bring your gently used, clean coats and jackets to the coat rack in our foyer. Drive ends November 30. Thanks!

Sandwich Road Menu brings you the latest news and highlights of upcoming events for the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Falmouth, Massachusetts. It is emailed each Friday and folded into the Order of Service on Sunday.
