For the week of November 21, 2021

Sunday November 21 and 28 at 10 AM, we will have a hybrid service—both in-person at the East End Meeting House (7 Hatchville Road, a few blocks from UU Falmouth), and via our regular Zoom login. Those meeting in-person will be chosen by lottery from a list of people who have indicated they would like to meet in-person.

We would like to know if you would prefer to attend an in-person service at the East End Meeting House or attend online instead. If you have not done so already, please click here to fill out a very simple form: <https://tinyurl.com/UUFalmouth2021>

You can always change your mind in the future. Please let us know if you have any difficulty completing the form.

SUNDAY SERVICE NOVEMBER 21, 2021 – The Complicated Story of Thanksgiving -The Rev. Joe Cherry. This year marks the 400th Anniversary of the “First Thanksgiving” at the Plymouth Plantation. Many facts and facets of the event remain a mystery and the story is ours to wrestle with this week.

HOLDING HISTORY – Exploring the History of UU and Our Place In It – Come join Larry Ladd for two Sundays in November as he leads these education sessions. (Zoom logins will be sent by email.)

On Sunday, November 21 at 3:00 PM the topic will be: “The separate Unitarian and Universalist paths that led to Unitarian Universalism.” How did the two separate faiths unite?

On Sunday, November 28 at 3:00 PM the topic will be: “Our roots in the Fellowship Movement.” We will explore the background of the movement of which UU Falmouth is a part.

UPDATE FROM THE CCSC (Capital Campaign Steering Committee) - The Capital Campaign Committee has been joined by Heather DiPaolo who is working closely with our group helping to manage our canvassers and tracking the results. She’s doing a great job of “diapering the octopus!” Thank you, Heather! Good news on the building: At least three contractors have expressed enthusiasm about the project. By the end of the week at least two will have toured the meetinghouse. Bruce is working on a new call for bids. The Board will be discussing options for the kitchen intake air (gas or electric) with Bruce Bell and David Mark Welch.

SUNDAY SERVICE NOVEMBER 28, 2021 – I Bought Something Complicated -The Rev. Joe Cherry. Our understanding of history is, hopefully, ever broadening and ever deepening. Historical movements in Race, Gender, BGLTQ+ communities (and more) have complexified our self-understanding.

Recently, Rev. Joe purchased something that has him perplexed and feeling a little unsteady. Join us for worship to find out why.

GROUP PRACTICE ON HONORING YOUR BODY, Monday, November 29 at 7:00 PM via Zoom
“The first step on a spiritual path today is a return to a sense of one’s own body.” ~Martha Heyneman
If you interviewed your body, what would it say about its strengths, weakness, and wounds? Come join us for this insightful group, lead by Rev. Saramaria Allenby, on how to work on self-acceptance.

Also see what UUA has to offer at: <https://www.uua.org/older-adults/body-mind-and-spirit>

UPDATE FROM THE Capital Campaign Steering Committee - You are so important to this effort! With Thanksgiving behind us and the end of the year in sight, your Capital Campaign Committee and your volunteer canvassers are working hard to reach the goal of this congregation. Please welcome them when they reach out to you. For those of you who have already pledged, we offer a HUGE “Thank You!” You are responsible for the exciting results of the campaign so far...20+ pledges resulting in $170, 000. Everyone is working hard to “Come Home” once again.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

BELONGING TO EACH OTHER IS IN NEED OF VOLUNTEERS – BTEO (Belonging To Each Other) is a local program designed to elevate homelessness in Falmouth. It is not an emergency drop-in shelter; the participants are vetted and involved in programming to relieve their current situation. BTEO is not-for-profit and run by volunteers. We are currently in need of volunteers to drive clients to jobs, medical appointments, and AA meetings. If you can offer just an hour a week to drive, please contact Lynda Connolly at 617-833-0529.
