For the week of November 7, 2021

UU FALMOUTH WILL NOT HOLD A SERVICE ON SUNDAY NOVEMBER 7 – This Sunday we will not be holding our own service at UU Falmouth. Instead, you are encouraged to visit one of our sibling congregations. This gives our Minister, staff, and Sunday service team a much-needed break, while also deepening our relationships and connections to our wider faith. Logins to other Cape UU services will be sent to you by email.

RESCHEDULED - CAPE COD CLIMATE EMERGENCY AND ECO-JUSTICE WEBINAR SERIES

The eighth and final session of our series on The Cape Cod Climate Emergency and Eco-Justice that was postponed from last Wednesday due to the power outage, is being held Wednesday, November 10, from 7 to 8:30 PM. Come learn about best practices to support children and youth in the climate emergency and for eco-justice.

We are privileged to have five excellent speakers: two high school students who are climate leaders with the Mass Audubon Youth Climate Leadership Program; the program's Coordinator; a school social worker/climate activist; and a school environmental/climate educator and faith youth advisor. If you were not already registered for last week's seminar and would like to attend next Wednesday, please register here:

SOCIAL & ENVIRONMENTAL ACTION EXPO – Thanksgiving is just around the corner. On November 13 from 11 AM–1:00 PM at the Meeting House you can purchase grocery cards to use for your holiday shopping, choose from a variety of baked goods for dessert, and buy Fair Trade chocolate and coffee for after dinner—all in one place! Due to COVID, grocery card sales have been down this year. Through the sale of chocolate, coffee and baked goods, SEAC is hoping to raise additional funds for the local charities we support. To learn more about these charities, go to <https://uuffm.org/justice-environmental-justice-climate-justice-food-security/local-giving/>.

GUEST AT YOUR TABLE – The Social & Environmental Action Committee is bringing back a UU Falmouth family tradition—Guest At Your Table. This UU Service Committee annual intergenerational program raises support for and awareness about key human rights issues. The program is an opportunity to celebrate grassroots partnership, support human rights, and learn about just four of these individuals – the “guests” in Guest At Your Table. Boxes will be available for pickup at the Action Expo (see article above) on November 13 from 11 AM-1:00 PM. Donations will also be welcome.

For more information go to: <https://www.uusc.org/resources/congregations/guest-at-your-table>.

SUNDAY SERVICE NOVEMBER 14, 2021 in-person at the East End Meeting House just down the road from UU Falmouth AND online (more details coming soon) – Herstory and Heroines, The Rev. Joe Cherry. One of the great stories in the history of our Unitarian Universalist religion is the strong role that women have played in the direction of our faith. There have also been periods where women's voices were not supported and even suppressed. Join us this Sunday as we share the stories of several remarkable women whom we should be proud to call our ancestors.

WHY GENDER MATTERS: GENDER AS A SOCIAL CONSTRUCT - A Talk By Rex LeBeau, Wednesday, November 17 at 7:00 PM via Zoom. Rex is a non-binary LGBTQ+ activist in Newport, Rhode Island; the former leader of UU Channing Memorial Interweave group; and a cartoonist and copy editor for Options Magazine, Rhode Island's monthly LGBTQ publication.

Please join us to learn more about this vital issue. To get the Zoom link, please register at lu.ma/wspdpdtbx. ~UU Falmouth Welcoming Congregation and Whole Life Learning Committees.

This three-part series is about sharing our common feelings of eco-anxiety and how to cope with them and support others in these changing times.
