SUNDAY SERVICE, February 17, 10:00 AM – Harnessing Love’s Healing Power in Times of Hate

February is Black History Month, and this year our observance comes in the midst of increasing racial tensions and violence across our nation. With hatred and fear everywhere, what are we to do? Who are we to be? In this service we shall listen deeply to the Black prophetic voices of our Unitarian Universalist past and present for guidance in harnessing love’s healing power during these difficult times.

SPIRITUAL PATHS, Sunday, February 17, 11:15 AM-1:00 PM. After the service we will have our fourth annual “Spiritual Paths” day. Congregants of all ages are invited to stay after the service to explore different ways to connect to and nurture our spiritual needs. We will end with the group coming together to bring us to a peaceful finish to the day. Everyone is invited.

The Youth Group will be selling bag lunches with a sandwich, fruit, chips, and water for $6.00. Proceeds will help send our youth to General Assembly in Spokane Washington in June.

FALMOUTH SERVICE CENTER DONATIONS FOR FEBRUARY 17—NON-FOOD ITEMS!

February 17 is UUF’s turn to provide donations to the Falmouth Service Center. FSC asks that instead of donating anything edible (except baby food) you bring personal items not available to clients EXCEPT through donations. Suggested items: diapers sizes 5, 6 and 7, laundry soap, paper towels, shampoo, toothpaste, deodorants, Depends for men and women, anti-bacterial wipes, toilet paper, dishwashing detergent (not dishwasher detergent), etc. FSC and its clients will be enormously grateful!
