10:00 AM SERVICE – What Then Must We Do? As the consequences of our decisions play out, uncertainty transforms into moral clarity. But when encountering injustice in the now, how can we know what must be done? This sermon explores how, historically, being grounded in our faith has still led us to radically different conclusions. What then must we do?

Janet Newton serves First Parish Church of Berlin, MA. Originally from New Mexico, she lives with her wife and daughter in Edgartown. Janet is being ordained into UU ministry at UUSMV on Martha's Vineyard in early May.

THE CHOIR WILL BE TAKING THE DAY OFF – We look forward to hearing their beautiful voices soon.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION – Classes will be held.

COFFEE HOUR – Snacks provided by the “5th Sunday” group (board members and committee chairs).

AUCTION TICKETS ON SALE – Look for ticket sellers who will be wearing tissue paper flowers.

SERMON DISCUSSION – 11:30 AM in the East Wing. Discuss the sermon and its relevance to our lives.

UPCOMING EVENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

DANCE FOR ALL AGES – March 29 from 6:30-8:30 PM – Bring friends and join us for a family-friendly, fun evening of cardio and conversation! Snacks provided. Free and open to all in the community.

SUPPORT THE UUFF CHOIR AT “SING FOR GOOD,” a benefit for Habitat for Humanity, Saturday, March 30, 7:30-9:00 PM, Cape Cod Synagogue, 145 Winter Street in Hyannis. For information contact Susan Brooks, brooks.susan@comcast.net.

UUFF AUCTION APRIL 6th, 5:00-9:30 PM—JUST ONE WEEK AWAY! Be sure to buy your tickets at church this Sunday, or contact the auction co-chairs if you need to make other arrangements to buy tickets. $20 buys you a meal cooked by some of UUFF's best cooks, an evening of socializing with other members and friends (and their guests), and a chance to bid on a variety of interesting items, services and events.

NOTE: The auction committee needs to borrow a few things from our members: We need at least a dozen card tables (bring after church on Sunday March 31, or by Friday April 5 and leave in the office anytime it is open from 9-noon). If anyone has an old beaded curtain hanging around, may we borrow it for decorating?

We might still need a few volunteers. If you could help, many hands do make light work. For tickets, to volunteer, or to offer any items we need, please contact ellen@jackson-todd.com or john@jackson-todd.com.

SUNDAY SERVICE, April 7, 10:00 AM – Not Knowing

Daniel Mark-Welch will speak on his experience at the UUA's summer seminary program, the variety of UU youth from around the country he met there, and the lessons he learned from them.

Daniel Mark-Welch is a member of the UUFF youth group and grew up in the UUFF. He is considering studying theology wherever he ends up in college.

THIRD ANNUAL ZEN FILM REVIEW – On Sunday, April 7, at 2:00 PM at the Meetinghouse, we will host our third annual Zen Film review with the Falmouth Soto Zen Sangha. Each year a film is chosen to help us look into how we practice our principles. In Zen this is called “Everyday Zen.” Our film this year is Instructions to the Cook: A Zen Masters Recipe For Living A Life That Matters. As we did last year, we will have a three-person panel commenting on the film, followed by general discussion. Refreshments will be provided and donations are accepted.

LOOKING FOR DELEGATES TO GENERAL ASSEMBLY– The newly reformed Denominational Affairs Committee is looking for volunteers to be official delegates to this year’s General Assembly, June 19-23 in Spokane, Washington. Please contact Nathan Wilson (nathan@collectivesource.com) if you are interested or want more information about this opportunity.

PLEDGE DRIVE WINDING DOWN – By this time, we have received many pledges, with many increasing their pledges to More! To those of you who have already committed to supporting the UUFF for fiscal year 2019-2020, THANK YOU! Those of you who haven't, PLEASE let us know your pledge so that we can start the budget process before our annual meeting. John Jackson, Stewardship Committee

REQUESTING FEEDBACK ON SUPPORT SERVICES FOR SENIORS – In a recent Sandwich Road Menu there was an announcement about a list of support services for seniors that is now on the UUFFM.org website. (Look under “Menu” then “Connections” and then “Caring for Each Other.”) We want this list to be of value to those who may need senior services and you can help. If you, or someone for whom you sought support, received helpful information or action from a specific service, or if you were disappointed with the service, we would like to post your feedback on the website. Please send your comments to Char Owens, owenses@gmail.com. Comments will be collected and added to the Senior Support Services list as appropriate. Please let us know if you wish your comments to remain anonymous.

CAPE COD LITERACY COUNCIL NEEDS VOLUNTEERS – Have you ever thought you would enjoy helping someone learn English? Here is your opportunity to find out what a rewarding experience it can be. The Cape Cod Literacy Council (CCLC) trains volunteer tutors and matches them with immigrants who have requested a tutor. The spring training will be scheduled sometime in April or May. If you have questions, contact Jane Jackson at janebjackson@gmail.com or call the CCLC volunteer coordinator at 508-771-0211.

TALK ON NEEDS OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES – The Falmouth Commission on Disabilities and the Town of Falmouth Affirmative Action Committee will present a talk on Tuesday, April 2 from 6-7:15 PM at the Falmouth Public Library Hermann Room. Gretchen Arvanitopolous, vice-president of CORD, the Cape Organization for the Rights of the Disabled, will be the speaker. Our goal is to educate the community and raise the awareness of town residents and businesses about the needs of persons with disabilities. CORD addresses educational rights of children, benefits, rights and services around housing and employment, and technical assistance from ADA. Light refreshments will be served. Joanne Treistman is co-chair of the Affirmative Action Town Committee.
