For the Weeks of February 23 AND March 2, 2025

Beloved UU Falmouth member Marion Flurkey passed away quietly in her sleep on Saturday, February 15. We will let you know when the date for her Celebration of Life has been set.

SUNDAY SERVICE February 23, 2025 at 10 AM at the Meeting House and via Zoom. "The Promise and the Perils of Unitarian Universalism" led by Larry Ladd; service associate Tedi Bell. What are the hopes, values and vision that hold us together as Unitarian Universalists? What are the fears and flaws that hold us back? How can we realize our potential? (This service was originally scheduled for February 9 but was postponed due to bad weather.)

COFFEE HOUR: As February 23 is the fourth Sunday of the month, we ask people whose last names begin with S-Z to bring a snack to share and stay to help cleanup.

PLEDGE DRIVE 2025 - The pledge drive team had a successful first meeting with interested members of the congregation on February 16. We are off to a good start! And we are excited for our pledge drive kickoff service on March 27th! If you are interested in helping with this year's drive, please speak with Jessica or David Mark Welch, Charlotte Harris, or Jack Mulkeen.

EXPLORING THE NATURE OF REALITY SERIES continues Wednesday, February 26 at 7 PM. "How We Relate and Come to Agreement" – led by Sangaku Dan Joslyn at the Meeting House and via Zoom. Reality is relational as opposed to absolute and, as such, there is a quality of depth and interconnectedness that is hard to fathom. We use agreement as a way to label things. We do so in all directions and in all flavors of a thing to reach absolute agreement on what it is, causing disagreement about certitude.

LINK PROGRAMS CONTINUE IN 2025. As part of the Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast annual celebration on January 20, the Linking Indigenous & Non-Indigenous Knowledge group (L.I.N. K.) was honored as the recipient of the No Place for Hate Civic Leadership Award. Their commitment to building bridges in our community was one of the key elements of their work that brought them this honor. Their spokeswomen explained the origins of the group and the valuable support they received from UU Falmouth during 2024. Most of their educational and informational sessions were held in our Meeting House and were attended by 100 or more people each time!

While they will not be holding monthly programs this year, they will have periodic presentations throughout 2025. The next one will take place on March 1 at 1 PM at Mashpee High School.

SUNDAY SERVICE March 2, 2025 at 10 AM at the Meeting House and via Zoom.

“Leadership As an Art” led by Rali Weaver; service associate Julie DeSorgher. During this service we will explore the various leaders who have brought this congregation together and what leadership skills are needed to bring it into the future.

WRITING GROUP OPPORTUNITY—A group of people in our UU Falmouth community have been meeting in-person on the 2nd and 4th Fridays from 10 AM until noon to share and discuss their writing. We would welcome a few more members who can commit to attending most of our meetings. If you are interested in joining us, please contact Ellen Todd at 978-877-7630 or ellen@jackson-todd.com.

THANK YOU, CAROL ANN. WELCOME, CYNTHIA. We want to extend a heartfelt thanks to Carol Ann Cronon for her service on the Board. Best wishes for a return to good health. Thank you to Cynthia Dyer for your willingness to step in as a new director.
