For the Week of April 13, 2025

SUNDAY SERVICE April 13, 2025 at 10 AM at the Meeting House and via Zoom.

“The Politics of Palm Sunday” led by Rev. Rali Weaver; service associate Jessica Mark Welch. This Palm Sunday, we embark on a journey of liberation, reflecting on the courage and hope that the story of Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem can offer us in our day. In a world often filled with injustice and suffering, we will draw inspiration from the radical messages of compassion, resistance, and solidarity that resonate within this ancient narrative.

COFFEE HOUR: As April 13 is the second Sunday of the month, people whose last name begins with F-L are asked to bring a snack to share and stay to help cleanup.

SPIRITUALITY AND U: A JOURNEY OF EXPLORATION AND CONVERSATION with Lisa Jo Rudy and Rev. Rali, Monday, April 14 at 4 PM and every other Monday at the Meeting House. Join us for an engaging and thought-provoking discussion series exploring spirituality from diverse perspectives. Each session dives into a fascinating topic, drawing insights from different cultures, philosophies, and personal experiences. Through lively conversation, we’ll wrestle with big questions, challenge assumptions, and discover new ways of thinking about the mysteries of life.

DEFYING THE NAZIS MOVIE SHOWING, Thursday, April 17 at 6:30 PM at the Meeting House OR April 13-May 13 on PBS. Come join together at the Meeting House to watch the film Defying the Nazis, co-directed by UU Falmouth’s Artemis Joukowsky and Ken Burns, starring Tom Hanks. Artemis will be on hand for questions and comments. Copies of his book will be available. If you can’t make the in-person showing, the film will be available for free on PBS from April 13-May 13. Simply go to PBS.org and type in Defying the Nazis.

FIRST AID/FIRST RESPONSE CLASS, Saturday, April 19 from 10-12. If you witness a medical emergency, do you know what to do? Come join Cynthia Dyer, RN, and refresh your First Aid skills. We will learn when to call 911 and how to efficiently explain the emergency to the dispatcher. Hands-only CPR and the use of our AED will be covered.

SUNDAY SERVICE April 20, 2025 at 10 AM at the Meeting House and via Zoom.

“We’ve Got the Whole World in Our Hands” led by Lew Stern; service associate Izzie Williams. Each year, people from around the world celebrate Earth Day in April. This year’s international Earth Day theme is “Our Power, Our Earth.” It focuses on the importance of both transitioning to renewable power, and our power to save the planet for our children and future generations. We will celebrate this year with special music, stories, and new traditions; we will award the UU Falmouth Environmental Steward Award to a special member of our congregation; and we will begin new traditions to celebrate our commitment as a Green Sanctuary and the impact we are having, and can have, as individuals and a community.

Share the Plate on April 20 will go to the Cape Cod Foundation Scholarship. Along with other members of the Faith Communities Environmental Network, UU Falmouth will contribute our collections to a special college scholarship, administered by the Cape Cod Foundation, for local high school graduates going into environmental studies.

Note: This year, we are excited to shift our focus to Earth Day, celebrating the beauty and resilience of our planet! While Easter may be a time of traditional festivities, we believe this is the perfect opportunity to renew our commitment to environmental stewardship. Together, we'll explore the wonders of nature and the steps we can take to protect it, igniting hope and inspiring positive action. Let's embrace this chance to unite as a community, fostering a brighter, more sustainable future for ourselves and future generations.
